

Diabetes Support Group

Individuals with diabetes can offer each other support at our Diabetes Support Group meetings. This group allows participants to share their experiences with diabetes, learn from others, and interactively discuss how they live with diabetes. Family members and caregivers are welcome. For more information about meeting dates, times and speakers, please call 601-553-6399 or check the Anderson calendar of events.