

Anderson Regional Medical Center offers free wireless internet access for our patients and visitors.

Wireless access points are located throughout the main hospital. Patients and visitors can access the wireless internet by following a few simple steps. Instructions are available at the switchboard and information desk. You may also ask your patient advocate for assistance.